More Info About Indigo -

Indigo Bridge Books and Café opened in 2008 with a mission to promote literacy and build community connections through books and beverages.

All our coffee proceeds go towards our non-profit outreach programs.

Ten years later we are still routed in our fundamental goals as we continue to grow as a business.

Creating a menu based around fresh, delicious, healthy, colorful, local products aligns with our vision by providing our customers with meal options that are based around community.

Thank you for supporting Indigo Bridge Books and Café, and our community partners.
